

Knowledge Management in Public Health: Building the Skills and the Community

12th March 2015

Venue: The Studio, Birmingham, B2 5EP

Agenda

09.30 Registration and coffee

10.00 Welcome and introduction

10.20 Knowledge for Healthcare

Sue Lacey-Bryant (Knowledge for Healthcare Programme)

Clare Edwards (Health Education West Midlands)

- Introduction
- Guiding principles and values
- Developing an appropriately skilled workforce

11.30 Coffee break

11.45 Going large on public health evidence: on saturated questions, super-sized sources and take away products

Andrew Booth (University of Sheffield)

12.30 Lunch

13.15 Searching for public health evidence

Tom Hudson (NICE)

14.15 Views from...

- The new public health landscape and the role of the librarian
Caroline Timothy (Warrington Public Health)
- PHE Centres and their role in Knowledge Management
Karen Saunders (Public Health England)
- Building an interactive knowledge base for public health: a view from Public Health England Knowledge and Library Service
Anne Brice (Public Health England)

15.00 Tea break and group work: Building the skills and the community

15.40 Feedback

16.00 Close

